Self-Help Service Terminals Launch in Saldanha

CIPC's Access Strategy includes partnerships to extend the CIPC service footprint nationally.
In partnership with Transnet, the Ministers of Public Enterprises as well as Small Business Development will officially launch the CIPC Self-Help Service Terminals (SST's) at the Transnet Enterprise Development Hub in Saldanha on Friday, 29 May 2015.

Transnet has embarked on this National project to:

- Stimulate economic growth and create job opportunities through small business;
- Share in Government's vision to alleviate poverty and inequality and initiated the creation of Small Business Development Hubs aimed at creating a fertile ground for entrepreneurs to flourish and assist emerging businessmen and businesswoman to realise their dreams;
- Provide business development support to entrepreneurs by providing access to varied products and services offered by both Provincial and National Economic Development Institutions under the same roof.

CIPC therefore now offers enterprise registration and related services at the Transnet Development Hub in Saldanha in the Western Cape including:

- Customer Registration;
- Company registration;
- Annual Returns;
- Disclosure;
- Address changes;
- B-BBEE Registration Certificates Application can be made when registering a company or when filing annual returns;
- Identity Verification.

The HUB is located at the West Coast Business Development Centre, 234 Tonyn Street, Saldanha Bay, Western Cape. Future expansion in the 2015/2016 financial year will see these HUB’s opening in Northern Cape, Eastern Cape and Limpopo. CIPC has targeted to roll out 40 SST’s in this financial year and this "one-stop-shop" concept has created an ideal platform for CIPC to maximise its customer reach.

Sincerely,
