In our attempts to prevent any fraudulent activities, it came to our attention that certain areas on our website are not well protected against fraud. One of these areas is the electronic submission of CM29. System changes are required to enable us to provide a well controlled electronic environment to our clients.

Therefore, CIPRO would like to inform customers that the removal of "electronic submission of CM29" is a temporary measure due to system changes. We apologise for the inconvenience.

Yours sincerely
